Enhancing opportunities for Chester County Women

CCWC EMPOWERED WOMAN AWARD

Recognizing women who have overcome major obstacles in their lives and have become inspirational role models for women in Chester County.

Do you know someone like this?

Nominees must live or work in Chester County. Selection for the award will be based on one or more of the following criteria:

- A woman who has been empowered by her struggles and inspires women as a mentor, role model and/or friend.
- A woman who has utilized social services available in Chester County to overcome difficulties and achieve her potential personally or professionally.
- A woman who has achieved success through a strong commitment to change her life situation and has sustained this commitment over a period of one year or longer.

This list gives some indication of the characteristics we are seeking in the nominees, and is not inclusive. The nominee need not fit in all the categories.

Help them get the recognition they deserve by nominating them for the CCWC Empowered Woman Award.

Nominations include the following:

- Required: Completed nomination form.
- Required: Completed recommendation form.
- Optional: Resume or CV
- Optional: Additional recommendations.
- Optional: News articles and other documentation to support the nomination. Limit: three items.

Nominations must be postmarked by February 28, 2016:

By e-mail: ccwcaward@gmail.com.

By U.S. Mail: CCWC, P.O. Box 761, West Chester, PA 19381

Note: Incomplete nominations will delay the selection process and may disqualify the nominee. Please ensure all required materials and any optional materials are delivered by deadline.

Nomination materials are also available at <http://www.ccwomenscommission.org>, where you can also learn about past award recipients.

Awardees must be present at the CCWC 2016 Award Ceremony to receive the award.
